SAC Jamieson of Philadelphia advised today he received a call from [redacted] advised that earlier today he had received an anonymous call from an individual as follows: u

b3 per CIA

The caller stated that he works for another Government agency on a retainer basis. He did not identify the Government agency involved. He said he knew the identities of the individuals who committed the burglary at Media; further, that he was aware of the fact that a burglary was to be committed prior to its actual commission and he so informed representatives of the agency for whom he works. He was told by his superiors not to get involved in this and to forget all about it. u

b3 per CIA

The caller told [redacted] that the data stolen at Media is to be taken to Canada, then transported to North Vietnam, and eventually to Red China. u

The caller asked [redacted] whether the Federal Government would be interested in this information and, if so, would it be worth $1,000. [redacted] told him he would have to check into the matter. The anonymous caller is to recontact [redacted] at 5:00 p.m. today. u
